50X1-HUM

1. The following measures have been taken in Hungary to make listening to radio broadcasts from western Europe and America impossible:
2. The Ministry for the Mails has undertaken the modification of all radio sets so as to exclude short-wave receiving. This modification is obligatory and is performed at no charge. New radio sets are made without short-wave reception.
3. Listening to short-wave stations, even by official organs, requires special permission from the Ministry for the Mails.
4. The Russians have set up a whole net of jamming stations. One of the principal jamming stations is located in the Budapest district, and another one is near Matyasfold. The personnel of these stations is exclusively Russian.
